

EUROCLIMA: Latin American - European Union Joint responses to climate change in the region

Presentations of key EUROCLIMA results and new orientations for climate change collaboration of the European Union with Latin America. EUROCLIMA is financed and coordinated by the European Union. Together with representatives of 18 Latin American countries and with international partner institutions, the programme aims at facilitating the integration of climate change mitigation and adaptation strategies and measures into Latin American public policies through research, training, information exchange and providing opportunities for policy dialogues.

Introduction to EUROCLIMA programme

Catherine Ghyoot – European Commission

Economics of Climate Change in Latin America: paradoxes and challenges of sustainable development

Luis Miguel Galindo – ECLAC

Climate legislation, high-level dialogue on climate change and public awareness

Margarita Astrálaga – UNEP – ROLAC

Víctor Ingrassia, de La Nación (Argentina) - Journalist

Capacity of the agriculture sector to mitigate and adapt to climate change

David Williams - IICA

Agriculture, drought and desertification in climate change scenarios: research, training, and modeling.

Paulo Barbosa – JRC - IES

Capacity building tools against climate change in Latin America

Jan Karremans - EUROCLIMA

Cristobal Reveco - Adapt-Chile

Perspectives of regional co-operation of the EU in Latin America

Catherine Ghyoot – European Commission

Dialogue with participants

European Pavilion – Brussels Room

The event will be in Spanish; there will be simultaneous translation to English.
After the meeting refreshments will be served

